Using the Sun to Your Advantage Sue Purdy from Sue's Solar

This month, join us for a chance to see ways to use the sun to enhance your quilting. Sue's Solar is a new innovative company featuring blueprinting and silk screening using the sun. No fancy equipment, no skill or talent required, but results are unbelievable, just using the sun. She has been teaching these techniques for the past 2 years at shows around the country. Her demonstration and trunk show will show us step by step, each method from start to finish, how fast and easy her 2 products work. Equally beautiful on clothing, fabric, and paper. She will show us how to make our own fabric prints using nature, stencils, found objects, lace, pretty much anything you can think of. Silk screens are burned using laser or ink jet transparencies, so anything you can print on a transparency, you can make a silk screen from that, again, just using the sun. She has scanned leaves, clip art, words, chicken wire, in other words, you can make a silk screen from anything.

Join us for this exciting look into another tool we can use in our quilting! She will be selling her products after the meeting so you can try this at home. Check out the workshops she will be teaching on Saturday and sign up for even more instructions on how to do this. Join us before the meeting at 5pm at the Texas Cattle Company restaurant at 44206 10th St West in Lancaster to get to know her better.

Two Workshops for the Price of One Blueprints in 10 Minutes and Multi-Use Pebeo

On Saturday August 13, join us for 2 workshops with our August speaker, Sue Purdy at Sierra Toyota meeting room for 2 workshops with the option of taking 2 more workshops for an additional charge. The address is 43301 12th St West, Lancaster. See more detailed information on the workshops on pages 3 & 4.

President's Message

I would like to welcome aboard our 2nd VP – Sandy Huszar. She has a big job in front of her with the Quilt Show. Mark your calendars, the Annual Quilt Show 2012 will be May 19th and 20th at the Lancaster Market Place. Sandy has many exciting ideas for the quilt show. Betty Putzka has volunteered to oversee Veterans' Quilts. Thank you both for volunteering.

We still have positions to be filled, which is Holiday Party, Opportunity Quilt Design for 2012-2013, and Door Prizes. If you are interested in filling these positions, please call or see me.

To tie in with the Quilt Show, how about a challenge of decorating Bras or a wall hanging with a bra theme? These items could be sold at our auction with proceeds going for breast cancer research. Sandy Huszar will fill in the details, later.

As of August Guild meeting, I will start a question and answer period dealing with any concerns that members have about the guild. This will not be debate session. If you feel that you didn't get a satisfactory answer, please bring your concerns to the monthly board meeting. In August the board meeting will be on August 16th at 6:30 pm at Bolts in the Bathtub. All members are welcome to attend.

See you at the guild. - Jamie

Two Workshops for the Price of One Blueprints in 10 Minutes and Multi-Use Pebeo

On Saturday August 13, join us for 2 workshops with our August speaker, Sue Purdy at Sierra Toyota meeting room for 2 workshops with the option of taking 2 more workshops for an additional charge. The address is 43301 12th St West, Lancaster.

The Blueprint class will start at 11am. You have a choice of doing a pretreated t-shirt (in sizes M, L, XL) or you can do a fat quarter. You can bring lace, leaves, foam shapes (anything solid that the sun can't see through). You can bring an insulation board and t-pins, or purchase them from her ($8.00 for the t-shirt, $6.00 if doing the fat quarter). She will provide all of the other supplies, so all you have to bring is what you want to print. The Multi-use Pebeo will be right after the blueprint class. We will sunprint, spraypaint and watercolor with this unique fabric paint. Her kit includes 1 paint, spray bottles, fine-tipped bottles, 1 white fat quarter, plus $6.00 for foam board and t-pins. You will need to indicate your paint color choice in advance. The choices are black, butter cup, cardinal, fuchsia, lemon yellow, moss green, orange, parma violet, pernod yellow, ultramar blue, velvet brown. You can check her website, www.suesolar.com to see samples of the colors. Supply List: 100% cotton tee or fabric to spraypaint, pre-washed.

If you are interested, she teaches 2 other workshops you can add onto the day for an additional charge. If you come at 9:00am, she can teach her "Appliqué the New Way". The cost is $28.00 for the kit--you can choose from the new 9 birdhouse patterns and kits by McKenna Ryan. The kits are pre-cut and fused. Supply List: iron, appliqué pressing sheet (she will offer these for sale if you do not have one). The other workshop which would be after the Pebeo class is "Silkscreens in 30 Seconds". The large kit is $45.00 (ability to make 2 large silkscreens 8 1/2" x 11"); the small kit is $32.00 (ability to make 4 small silkscreens, 4" x 5"). Both kits include frames, foam brush, 2 oz. paint, and plastic canvas. Supply List: prewashed light colored shirt or fabric, cardboard to fit inside (she will provide transparencies of designs for us to pick from).

If you are interested in taking the workshops, please let Corinne Gurney know as soon as possible, especially if you want to take the additional workshops so I can let Sue know what supplies to bring with her. My email address is cgurney@att.net or call me at 661-267-2970.

FLORAL FANTASY FABRIC EXCHANGE - AUGUST 11, 2011

Bring 31 strips precut 2 1/2" wide x width of fabric (fat quarters will have 2 strips stapled together). You will trade 30 strips and use the extra strip in an auction quilt. All strips are 100% cotton floral fabrics - quilt shop quality - prewashed and ironed. No white or off white backgrounds. GIVE WHAT YOU WANT TO RECEIVE. Roll the strips together, secure with a rubber band and put your name and the number of strips you brought with $1 (this pays for the handouts).

32 strips and one (1) yard of background fabric in any color (e.g. celery green, yellow, beige, white, black, blue, etc.) will make the 46" x 60" quilt shown.

$10 WORKSHOP on AUGUST 27, 2011 (9 A.M. TO 4 P.M.) WILL PAY FOR GUILD EXPENSES @SIERRA TOYOTA. BRING A SACK LUNCH OR PURCHASE ONE AT DOWNSTAIRS CAFE. BEFORE WORKSHOP, PRECUT 191-2 1/2" SQUARES OF BACKGROUND FABRIC AND PREUT THE PRINT FABRICS AS DESCRIBED IN THE PATTERN.

This pattern came to me from a student, Ann Sidell, in the Simi Valley Quilt Guild. She adapted it from APQ Magazine, Feb. 2011 and "Stashbusters-Sandy's Mindless Sewing Challenge."

FRIENDSHIP GROUPS

We had a great start to forming new friendship groups at our July meeting! We have two new groups that are still able to accept new members, and we will form additional groups, as needed.

Again - if you want to get to know other quilters from our guild 'up close and personal', sign up for a friendship group at the next meeting. Everyone who signs up will get a 'goodie bag'! There are no rules and no requirements for friendship groups - they are 'create as you go'.

I will be in Minnesota for the August meeting, but Sue Hartman has graciously volunteered to sit in the back with the sign-up sheet and hand out the goodie bags. I will be back a day or two later, to coordinate the groups.

Take the plunge! You'll be glad you did!

Come join us on Tuesday, August 9th for the Vets Workshop from 10am to 3pm at Bolts in the Bathtub.

Sunshine: I've been told, that Marilyn Kostecky's, knee replacement, has developed an infection and that the replacement had to be removed. She will be in this condition for at least 6 weeks or until the infection has healed. Then they can do another replacement. We wish her a fast recovery and that she is up and around very quickly. Sorry to report, I just heard that Tammy Boyd's grandmother had passed away the other day. Our prayers go out for, Tammy and her family.

NOTIONS • PATTERNS

Note from the Librarian – Through the library I want to set up a bi-annual month block party. This would be designed to showcase a book from the library using different techniques that all levels of quilters could accomplish. How it would work is that the block would be printed in at least two newsletters and handouts of the pattern will be available on the librarian's table. You may work up the block as many times as you would like, and each block will enter gives you a chance to win all the blocks, i.e., one block will give you one chance; five blocks will give you five chances to win. To this goal I have been looking at getting a block building program for the computer. It has been suggested that I get Electric Quilt 7 (e.q.7). My Dad is evaluating the program, I hope, as we speak, so maybe next month we will have our first quilt block party.

Just a reminder that the entire library catalog is now available to you on the guild's website, at <http://www.avqa.org>. With some luck the internet will take you to our guild's home page. There, I hope, you will find an orange rectangle titled "Library" which is found on the third line from the top of the page and another one is found at the bottom of the same page. One just needs to click on the word "Library" this will take you to a pdf file with ant print on it. Next find your magnifying glass or some strong glasses or just click your mouse on the button "Type a zoom percentage, or click the menu and choose a preset magnification." Wow, what a long name for a button. Well, it is found in the middle of the bar right above the mouse print. I find 125% to 150% works well for me, but please give it a try for yourself. After all this, if you find a book you would enjoy seeing at our next meeting, just call me with some time for me to find the book, and you will be that much closer to finishing your next project.

Remember our library has many items to share, so when you borrow materials from it we do need them back. Please return your items, or call me for an extension, so we both remember what has been borrowed.

A Friendly report from you SCCQG representative: This month's meeting was down in Santa Ana and the topic was Newsletters. I took lots of notes and a lot was very interesting. The entire meeting notes will be posted in the SCCQG newsletter on line. The business part of the meeting started with the new website information. If you want to submit an article for the newsletter, the site is info@sscqg.org. The Insurance chair reminded everyone that "if you need extra insurance for the facility, the insurance company is now requiring a copy of the contract." Here is an idea if we want to change our by-laws, stagger board members positions. Just a thought and no I don't want to head that committee but I will help with the committee. The SCCQG is looking for a host for the months of July and October 2012.

Here are my notes on Newsletter editor. The speaker compared being a newsletter editor to making a friendship quilt. You need to know your spaces and how to organize it. Some guilds use organization sheets to keep track of articles. A lot of quilt guilds add pictures. For the online newsletter, which does lower the budget of mailing and printing, you need a computer and software. Software makes the organizing easier. There are different free on line software programs. The job of the newsletter editor is to accept, organize, write, and edit. Keep articles simple and to the point. They said that PDF files are the universal program to download. The speaker talked about adding pictures to the newsletter and a point was brought up about members' privacy. To avoid any problems to putting pictures in the newsletter or website is to have a consent form signed first or even add the consent in the membership application of the guild. One way to help cut cost of printing is to assign a copy buddy. This means a member would copy the newsletter for someone that wants a hard copy. The main points of having an on line newsletter also is the cost, you can zoom in on it, economical friendly, and reduces cost of printing and mailing. If you add color to your newsletter, it makes it more exciting to read and may keep members interested. Headlines catch the reader's eye and make them want to check out that article.

That was the meeting. There were a lot of shops in that area but I had visited Piecemaker's in Costa Mesa. The shop still has a lot of cute patterns and lots of different things to look at. I was very lucky when I stopped by M and L, too. They were having a sale that week and I was very good there. If you haven't been to those shops lately, it is worth the trip to check both of them out. Plan a road trip with your friends.

Antelope Valley Quilt Association General Meeting Minutes July 14, 2011

President Jamie Harrington brought the meeting to order at 6:35. She announced that Sandy Huszar has volunteered to be 2nd V. P.

The June guild meeting minutes were approved as reported in the newsletter.

Former Treasurer Pat Stauning said there was not an error on her report regarding basket sales at the quilt show. Corinne Gurney moved to accept the Treasurer's report containing the 2011-12 budget. Joe Filich seconded the motion. The guild voted to approve the report.

Jamie announced that the Door Prize chairman's job is one of those still open.

Parliamentarian Sandy Smith asked for a vote to approve Sandy Huszar as the 2nd V.P. Sandy Huszar was elected by unanimous vote.

1st V.P. Corinne Gurney announced the evening's speaker, Anne Copeland. She said Sue Purdy will lecture at the August meeting on sun printing and give two workshops, one on applique and the second on silk screens in 30 seconds. In September, Sue Handley will lecture on making quilts from what you have, and her workshop on September 17 will be "Pineapple Quilts and Beyond." There is still room on the bus to the Long Beach International Quilt Festival.

2nd V.P. Sandy Huszar announced that the quilt show will be May 19-20, 2012. Sandy joined AVQA in 1992 and did her first quilt show with Mo Seeman. She has chaired or co-chaired a half-dozen or more shows.

A question from a member about having the quilt show every other year prompted a short discussion. Sandy Huszar invited the membership to attend the board meeting Tuesday night to hear her ideas for the quilt show and to suggest their ideas then or any time except while she's gone to see Elvis.

Friendship Circle chairman Karen Stenback talked about her mission to get members into groups.

Librarian Corine Cudney talked about three books in the AVQA library: Secrets of Digital Quilting by Lura Schwarz Smith; America's Printed Fabrics, 1770-1890 by Barbara Brackman; and Safari Through African Folklore Embroidery by Leora Raikin.

Opportunity Quilt co-chairman Kathy Judkins asked for more volunteers to help with white-gloving or ticket-selling at Long Beach IQF.

Philanthropic chairman Lucille Bell said she has kits to make up philanthropic quilts.

Betty Putzka has volunteered to take Veterans Quilting again. Quilts are sent to the wounded soldiers from Afghanistan and Iraq at Landstuhl Hospital.

Web Site chairman Sue Jacobsen is working on the web site. She has posted home tour pictures on it.

Sunshine chairman Joe Filich reported that Marilyn Kostecky had an infection of her knee after knee replacement surgery and had to have the replacement taken out.

Mary Brewer talked about her 2 1/2" strip fabric trade in August. The fabric must be quilt-shop quality, pre-washed floral fabric cut 2 1/2" x WOF. Participants need to cut enough strips for everyone in the trade plus one for an auction quilt and roll them up jelly-roll fashion. Mary showed a quilt that used 40 strips.

Membership chairman Michelle Johnston announced that 4 people joined the guild last month. Two more people joined tonight. There were 5 visitors, two from Orange County. Drawing was held for those who wore their name tags.

Show and Share:

- Cheryl Nieman showed a machine-embroidered blue on purple quilt she finished on a recent retreat.
- Lucille Bell showed a quilt she made for her nephew who is a policeman.
- Michele L'Heureux showed a tote she made from her "Birds of a Feather" workshop project and a yo-yo quilt made by her grandmother.
- Vivien Eal, who moved here from Saudi Arabia, showed her first four quilts.
- Pat Stauning showed her "Jelly Roll Quilt 1600."
- Corine Cudney shared information about a thread-shaving tool.
- Joe Filich showed a heart-block quilt appliqued by his late wife, Evalyn. Renee Artim had finished the quilt and quilted it. Sharron Dalton bound it.
- Mary Brewer showed a sampler quilt she started in 1985. She said she kept making blocks until she ran out of fabric. Mary shared a tip about sewing some of the fabric into the sleeve for future repairs.

Door prize drawing was held.

After the hospitality break, Corinne Gurney introduced Anne Copeland, certified quilt appraiser. Anne talked about what a quilt appraiser does and gave verbal appraisals of quilts brought to the meeting by members and visitors. She also shared tips for quilt care, cleaning and storage, and what makes a quilt valuable.

Meeting adjourned 9:15.

Antelope Valley Quilt Association Board Meeting Minutes—July 19, 2011

The meeting was called to order at 6:36 p.m. by Jamie Harrington, President. Board members in attendance were Jamie Harrington, Corinne Gurney, Sandy Huszar, Kathy Judkins, Sue Hartman, Karen Stenback, Sandra Ray, Corine Cudney, Michelle Johnston and Joe Filich. AVQA member Mary Brewer also attended.

President Jamie Harrington announced that the guild was listed in the Senior Living section of the Antelope Valley Press. She also said that SCCQG has asked if we would host a meeting here on October 13, 2012. The guild would provide breakfast and possibly lunch. Our expenses for that and for rental of the fellowship hall at Lancaster United Methodist, if it's available, would be reimbursed up to $500. SCCQG representative Vicki Brown would be in charge of making the arrangements and getting volunteers to help. Sue Hartman made a motion that we host the SCCQG meeting in October 2012. Corine Cudney seconded the motion, and the motion was approved by the board.

1st V. P. Corinne Gurney, 1st Vice President, said that our speaker at the August 13 meeting will be Sue Purdy from Escondido. She will be talking about sun printing on fabric, and she will be giving two workshops for the price of one. Sue Handley will lecture at the September meeting on how we can keep making quilts in a bad economy. She will teach a workshop, "Pineapple Quilts and Beyond." The meeting room at Sierra Toyota is not available for the September workshop, so Corinne will check on availability of a room at the Oxford Inn. Mary Brewer will present the October program. She discussed her plans for the meeting, including a round table discussion with the founding members and an ice cream social. Board members discussed publicity, philanthropic activities, and welcoming new members.

2nd V. P. Sandy Huszar, talked about her ideas for the quilt show, including having a gift certificate instead of a sewing machine to raffle off. She is investigating having a 50's car show along with the quilt show, and she is considering having a quilted bra exhibit at the show that could be used to generate funds for mammograms.

Friendship Circles chairman Karen Stenback reported that she had organized a new friendship circle for seven members at the guild meeting. Sue Hartman will sub for her in August.

Historian Sandra Ray has photos from the meetings on discs. She will get the scrapbooks from the shed for the October meeting.

Librarian Corine Cudney had some administrative and computer questions. She also suggested a speaker to teach applique.

Membership chairman Michelle Johnston reported that there were 53 members, 2 new members, 1 returning member, and 5 visitors at the July guild meeting. There were 73 renewals and 7 new memberships.

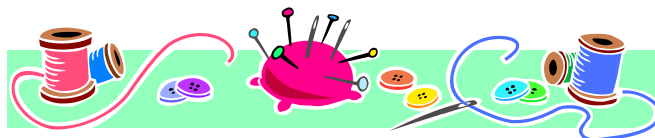

Newsletter chairman Michelle Johnston announced that the deadline for submitting articles for the August newsletter is midnight on Friday, July 22.

The June board meeting minutes were approved as reported in the newsletter.

The next board meeting will be August 16.

Meeting was adjourned at 7:53 p.m.
