November Program

Program November 10, 2022

Carol Wilhoit: During forty years of quilting, Carol has become interested in making small quilted projects as well as quilts. As a retired physician, she enjoys bringing her technical mind to quilting. She enjoys figuring out how to make the construction process easier while producing better results. She has also refined techniques for building, organizing, and using a fabric stash that make it a joy to have and to use.

Carol has been teaching quilting classes for about ten years. She loves sharing her tips and tricks with others and encouraging students as they try new projects and techniques. One of her favorite aspects of teaching is seeing students succeed at completing a challenging project. Another is seeing students have “Aha!” moments during which they see how simple changes in construction technique can help them create projects that look better while taking less effort.

Hexagons: Six Sides, One Angle, and Oh So Many Possibilities

The hexagon is successfully used in both traditional and contemporary quilts. The unique six-sided geometry of the hexagon makes it exceptionally versatile! While hexagons can be arranged in interesting patterns, they can also be created from other shapes, such as triangles and diamonds. Quilted hexagon pieces can incorporate many techniques, including machine piecing, hand piecing, English Paper Piecing (by hand or machine), fussy cutting, embroidery, and quilting.

November 12, 2022 We will not be having a sew-in because it is a holiday weekend. Spend the weekend with your family and have a good time.

December is a month that we don't have a meeting and/or sew-in.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Happy Fall, Y'all!!! So nice to have cooler weather. What a wonderful meeting we had this month. The speaker was so interesting. Even if you aren't someone that does art quilts, she gave us lots of tips that we can use in our conventional quilting. Nette and Pat have worked so hard finding these speakers for the past few years, and I for one really appreciate their hard work. It was great to see so many familiar and new faces at the meeting. I know it's been crowded in the room we have been using, but in November we will be meeting again in the big room. We will all have room to stretch out. My hubby and I are traveling again this next week, but we will be back for the next meeting. See you then!!!

Donna

Antelope Valley Quilt Association
General Meeting Minutes - October 13, 2022

Meeting called to order at 6:04 pm by President Donna Roberts at United Methodist Church with Kathy Judkins acting as secretary.

Greeting/President Roberts: Welcome! Please make sure you are signed up for Show and Share. We may be in the big room next month.

Nette Louton introduced the speaker, Nanette Zeller, who presented her lecture, "Naturescapes," via Zoom. You can see her article, "Faux Float Frames," in Quilting Arts, Summer 2022. You can also read her weekly blog, sign up for her newsletter, and check out her online classes on her website, nanettesewz.com. She also has a YouTube channel.

Minutes: The September meeting was canceled.

Treasurer's Report: Dixie Bahr said the California Justice Dept. has kicked back our raffle permit twice. She is working on submitting the form a third time with answers to all their questions. Until it's approved, we can't sell raffle tickets.

1st Vice-President/Pat Crook : The holiday party is up in the air right now. We are trying to find a room to reserve. Pat said she had been asked why we're zooming speakers. She said it's much less expensive and we don't have the funds right now to bring speakers here. Diane Grooms asked about doing Zoom workshops. Pat said she would check into it.

Membership/Peggy Campbell: Everybody here tonight got their opportunity quilt tickets that were included in the membership fees. She has tickets for the Babylock Jazz machine donated by Al's Vac & Sew.

Parliamentarian/Nette Louton: She is asking for volunteers for positions when we vote in the spring. We will need a President, 1st VP,

Secretary, and Parliamentarian next year, so please think about it.

Membership/Peggy Campbell: We have 32 members, 5 guests, and 1 new member attending tonight. Membership drawing was held. Terri Moss and Sydney Looper won.

Philanthropic/Kathy Judkins: Before the meeting tonight, I received quilts that were bound by Donna and Jim Roberts and Sherry DeLano. Terri Moss brought several quilts that she and her group in Lake Hughes had made. Last month, Terri Moss, Judy Miller, Betty Putzka, Joan Tyler, and other members of the Lake Hughes Women's Club made and donated 11 wheelchair lap quilts to the William J. "Pete" Knight Veterans Home in Lancaster; 10 baby and toddler quilts to Care Net in Lancaster; and 5 twin-size bed quilts to the Painted Turtle Camp in Lake Hughes. At the end of September, I took 9 quilts to the Children's Center in Lancaster. The first week of October I took 5 quilts to the Women's Clinic of the Antelope Valley in Palmdale. Pictures of all these quilts are posted on the Antelope Valley Quilt Association Facebook page. Bits & Pieces friendship circle and the Philanthropic committee are making tote bags and bowl cozies to be given to residents of Harshfield Terrace at their holiday party. If you would like to help make these, let me know and I will get the supplies and instructions to you. You can also join us at our next workshop at Harshfield Terrace on Saturday, November 5.

Fat Quarter Drawing/Nani Johnson: Dixie Bahr won. The color for November will be RED.

Announcements: Donna Roberts said that she received information about an estate moving sale that Renee Artim is having. Diane Grooms, Quilt Show Auction Chairman, reminded everyone that she needs quilts for the auction.

AVQA Board Meeting Agenda Oct. 18, 2022

Meeting called to order 5:40 via Zoom by President Donna Roberts with Carolyn Lundie acting as secretary.

Greeting/President Roberts:

Minutes: Nette Louton moved to accept the September board meeting minutes. Seconded by Kathy Judkins. Motion passed Programs/1st VP/Nette Louton: November's speaker will be Carol Wilhoit with English Paper Piecing by Machine. The tea in Sept. was canceled due to the heat. Nette responded to some comments made by various members. She cannot schedule more in-person speakers due to the cost. Southern California Council of Quilt Guilds are meeting via Zoom.

Ways and Means/2nd VP Stephanie Shuping: Peggy Vachon is inviting vendors for the next quilt show. Stephanie Shuping went to a quilt show and talked to vendors for our next quilt show.

Treasurer's Report/Dixie Bahr: Dixie is having a bit of a problem filing for a raffle application with the Department of Justice. Dixie paid for the church rental through January. The United Methodist Church needs a 7-day notice to cancel rental of the hall without charge. The insurance has been paid. She will enter the meeting insurance on the SCCQG site. It was suggested that we advertise that we have a scholarship program.

Membership/2022-2023 Opportunity Quilt/Peggy Campbell: We have one new member, JoAnn Gonzalez, and Lynn Michaud has renewed. 5 visitors.

Philanthropic/Kathy Judkins: Kathy has taken pictures of all the quilts people have given her and she'll put them on the website. Quilts were donated to the Women's Clinic of AV and other places. Kathy suggested that the guild make gifts (bowl cozies and tote bags) for the people at Harshfield Terrace to thank them for the use of their facilities. Maggie Konik is cutting kits to help with this.

New Business: Budget Self Storage has raised our rent to $1200 a month. Kathy Greene announced an estate sale Nov. 4th and 5th. We can use the big room at the United Methodist Church next month; however, their janitor has to be gone by 8:30 so we need to be out of the parking lot by then.

Announcements: Donna Roberts will not be at the next meeting as she will be out of state. Donna gave a report on the SCCQG meeting. Of note, there is not to be any alcohol in raffle baskets. Also raffle tickets cannot be sent through the mail. Raffle tickets can't be sold until the DOJ gives us approval.

Meeting adjourned 6:58 p.m.

Announcements:

Hospitality

If your last name starts with I-O please bring a refreshment or snack of some kind to share with your fellow members.

Fat Quarter Drawing

Bring 1-5 fat quarters to enter the monthly drawing and have a chance to win a whole basket of yummy fabric. The color for the November drawing is RED

2nd VP/Ways and Means

Vendors are being contacted and have shown interest in being a part of the 2023 Quilt Show. To date no one has submitted payment for a booth, but there is definite interest. Stay tuned as this task progresses.

Additional progress was made to secure other sponsors. However, we need to finalize the paperwork for our 2022-2023 raffle license. We are unable to sell more raffle tickets or solicit potential sponsors until that is cleared up.

We are also in need of people to head up various aspects of the Quilt Show in May. Some of the positions remaining are the 1) boutique, 2) show set-up and breakdown, 3) security and 4) admissions. Please contact Donna Roberts, Peggy Vachon or Stephanie Shuping should you have questions and/or wish to volunteer. Carla Wolf is coordinating the judging and quilt check-in. Kathy Judkins has agreed to coordinate our publicity efforts and Diane Grooms (with assistance from Lynn Aguirre) is coordinating the auction.

Stephanie Shuping
2nd VP/Ways and Means Co-Chair

Philanthropic

Bits & Pieces Friendship Circle and the Philanthropic Committee are making tote bags and bowl cozies to be given to residents of Harshfield Terrace at their holiday party. If you would like to help make these, let me know and you can pick up a kit or I will bring a kit to you. You can also join us at our next workshop at Harshfield Terrace on Saturday, November 5, to work on these.

Last month, Terri Moss, Judy Miller, Betty Putzka, Joan Tyler, and other members of the Lake Hughes Women's Club made and donated 11 wheelchair lap quilts to the William J. "Pete" Knight Veterans Home in Lancaster; 10 baby and toddler quilts to Care Net in Lancaster; and 5 twin-size bed quilts to the Painted Turtle Camp in Lake Hughes. At the end of September and beginning of October, I took 9 quilts to the Children's Center in Lancaster and 5 quilts to the Women's Clinic of the Antelope Valley in Palmdale. Pictures of all these quilts are posted on the Antelope Valley Quilt Association Facebook page.

At the October guild meeting, I received quilts that Donna and Jim Roberts and Sherry DeLano bound. Terri Moss brought several quilts that she and her group in Lake Hughes had made. As always, many thanks to all the members listed above and to Lynn Aguirre, Peggy Campbell, Kathy Greene, Sharon Hayes, Marilyn Hendrix, Peggy Howard, Michelle Johnston, Melanie Karnavas, Maggie Konik, Carolyn Lundie, Kim Mardrossian, Jan Moore, Lynell Rodio, Harriet Spann, Pat Stauning, and Peggy Vachon.
